Sea Grove Recovery Names Chief Executive Officer

Mount Pleasant, SC – September 24, 2024 – Sea Grove Recovery, a new facility for substance use treatment located on Wando Park Boulevard and on track to open in Winter 2025, is pleased to announce the appointment of Theresa Adkison, MNLM, SUPD, to Chief Executive Officer, effective next month. In this role, Adkison is responsible for implementing the highest standards of care for individuals dealing with substance use disorder.

Adkison joins Sea Grove Recovery from Washington State Health Care Authority, where she served as Supervisor of Peer Support Services. Prior to that, Adkison was at Triumph Treatment Services for over nine years, initially serving as a substance use counselor, promoted to roles of increasing responsibility over time, and departing as the VP of Substance Use Disorder Services.

“For so many, substance use is serious and life-threatening,” said Adkison. “At Sea Grove, we are creating a path to recovery with a facility led by people in recovery. When I first entered treatment for my addiction, I was scared and I was exhausted by my disease, and it was the best decision I ever made. Now it is my life’s work to help others know that recovery is possible.”

Adkison earned her Master’s in Nonprofit Leadership & Management (Summa Cum Laude) from Arizona State University and her BA in Comparative American Cultures (Cum Laude) from Washington State University. She is also certified in Chemical Dependency Studies from Yakima Valley College.
